EARLY MATTAPOISETT WHARF SCENE

This broad beamed Catboat riding so peacefully on the waters of the wharf slip was typical of the craft of a quarter century ago. The graceful lines of these slow but seaworthy cats have all but disappeared on this part of the coast. Many were permanently retired by the 1938 hurricane which demolished the sail loft in the right background. In Maine and Nova Scotia, the beamy cats are still much in evidence as they sail daily in the lobster trade.

Sewer System Aired

A large turnout of voters appeared at the hearing at Old Hammondtown School on Thursday night to hear plans for a Mattapoisett Sewer System. More than 100 people were on hand. Chairman Francis Lynch of the Water Pollution Abatement Committee made the presentation, assisted by Richard K. Macomber, Mattapoisett Town Planner. The brochure mailed to all residents was revised to new figures reflecting a lower interest rate on the 30-year loan of the town's share of $3,519,000. The estimated rate of 7% was revised to 5 1/2%. This lowers the total cost to $6,422,000. from $7,068,000. of which total the State and Federal Fund would pick up 51%. The estimated cost of operation and maintainance of the system, if the Fairhaven treatment plant is used, would be about $35,000. The cost of Mattapoisett's purchase of part of the Fairhaven treatment plant (plus the larger sewer lines and pumping station required to use that location) is estimated at $420,000. of which the State and Federal share is 80%, The impact on the 1973 tax rate would be $3.95 per $1,000, climbing to $8.32 per $1,000. in 1975 and gradually falling off to $4.84 per $1,000. by 1980 (for the Phase I system now proposed).

Residents asked that the format for the meeting be changed as Mr. Macomber started to read questions and answers from the brochure which the audience assured him had already been individually read. Those present expressed a concern and willingness to deal with the problem but displayed a lack of enthusiasm for the $7,000,000. start of the $18,000,000. system proposed. It was suggested that the town should prevent building in wet areas and preserve those areas for natural resources and then limit the sewer system to the initial phase. The Old Rochester treatment plant was brought up, since it serves a population roughly the same as the Phase I proposed system. It was asked why a small plant could not be built at approximately $100,000. to take care of the problem in the village. William Dyer, engineer of Fay, Spofford & Thorndike, Inc., said that the present system could not be utilized as storm drains are not acceptable for sewer lines and that it would only be an expensive stopgap measure. Residents who would be served by the Phase I system were very concerned about the

One man who estimated a $4,000 cost inquired about the 8% rate to be charged as interest to the homeowner. It was explained that the town would have to borrow the money at 5 1/2 % and so would have to charge 8% to the homeowner. The questioner said that it was unfair to tax the homeowner to pay the 5 1/2 % to pay for the initial loan and then, at the same time, charge him 8 % on the same money. It would be double taxation he stated.

Mr. Morgan of the Mattapoisett Water Department questioned the fact that this plan showed sewer lines running down several private roads which is against the law. The committee spokesman said that they could be eliminated. The questioner asked, "then you would leave people on private roads free to pollute the area?" Mr. Morgan then pointed out that the plan showed a sewer line running down Brandt Island Road. He asked if it was planned to run this sewer line on well water because that's all they have on Brandt Island Road. The committee said that Brandt Island Road could be eliminated. Mr. Edwin Winslow said that he noticed that the sewer line would run by his home on Acushnet Road. He pointed out that the Acushnet Road area is composed of sand and that the drainage there is excellent. "Why", he asked, "should I be forced to tie into a sewer line abandoning a septic system which works to perfection when other areas of the town with poor drainage could benefit?" The committee spokesman said that perhaps Acushnet Road could be eliminated.

A resident suggested that all lines north of the highway be taken off the plan except for North Street. It was pointed out by Mr. Lynch that the committee had considered this and other deletions but that the saving was so little from the total cost that they thought that the extra service outweighed the difference. The Phase I system must be designed to accommodate the flow of the complete system and for this reason contains larger diameter pipe and pumping stations that increase the cost, according to Mr. Dyer.

Suggestions were made that the ratio (of 65% from general taxation to 35% from homeowners taxed for service) be reversed. This would mean that the homeowner would pay approximately $24. per linear foot for the installation of town owned sewer lines parallel to his frontage. A 100 foot lot would be taxed $2400.00. The committee said that the ratio would have to be voted at the town meeting following the town meeting which accepts the construction of the initial Phase I sewer system.

Articles 33 through 38 of the 1972 town warrant deal with the sewer system and, if approved, would initiate active planning, provide for the taxation to support it, and to enter agreements and sign contracts with Fairhaven, State and Federal agencies which would preclude active construction.

Letters to the Editor

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Several things became clear from last Thursday's hearing on the proposed sewer: (1) The people do not feel they can afford a $7 million sewer system at a cost to the town of $3,519,000.; (2) Most people seem to be convinced of the need to stop dumping raw sewage into our harbor; (3) Many people are not convinced that a $7 million sewer system is necessary to solve our sewage problem.

It was also apparent that the people expected much more from the Water Pollution Abatement Committee than the Committee was asked to produce. The committee was appointed by the Selectmen and asked to study and make a report on Fay, Spofford & Thorndike's preliminary plan for building sewers in Mattapoisett. They were not asked, nor were they fully equipped to study all sources of pollution in the town, and design a sewer system which would meet the needs of this pollution.

I can assure you that the active members of the committee have worked long, hard hours trying to find some alternative to spending $7 million. All members consider this a nearly impossible burden on the town, but they realize that any alternative must be consistent with federal and state guidelines. Unfortunately, there appears to be no simple inexpensive solution at this time which meets these guidelines.

The committee feels the townspeople have a right to be fully informed about the proposed system, and should have a chance to vote on it. The people have been informed through a pamphlet and the open hearing. During Town Meeting they will have a chance to accept or reject the proposal. If rejected, as appears likely, the Town must have another alternative or face the likelihood of a state enforced implementation schedule to build the proposed system. Delaying tactics could possibly stall this for two or three years, but with construction costs increasing at around 11% per year, the system, when built, would likely cost eight or nine million instead of seven million. Do we bear the burden now, or hope for a technological breakthrough at the risk of bearing an even heavier burden later?

Whichever you choose, remember that members of the Water Pollution Abatement Committee feel the same frustrations about the lack of choice in this issue that most of you do. They are not opponents, they are taxpaying neighbors of yours who face the same betterment charges you do, and who would probably rather watch TV on Thursday nights than discuss sewers. If we don't appreciate our public spirited citizens who take on the tough jobs -- we will soon cease to have public spirited citizens!

I do not see how the Rezoning Board can disguise this recommendation as being in the best interest of the town. I feel they are asking the area residents and the townspeople in general to live and suffer forever with a possible eyesore so a certain few can profit.

Two years ago, at the town meeting, when the Planning Board asked us to rezone the dump area it was with the assurance there would always be a buffer zone maintained between the industrial area and the residential area. I feel that promise had a lot to do with its passage and should be honored.

WHAT ABOUT CENTER SCHOOL?

1. How many students was Center School originally planned to accommodate? 450 students.

2. What is the current student enrollment at Center School? As of March 15, 1972 418 students.

3. Are there empty rooms at Center School? There are 2 rooms not being used as academic classrooms.

4. For what purpose are these rooms being used? One is used for physical therapy in conjunction with the Special Education Group. The other room is utilized as a combination Math Lab and classroom for use by volunteer aids. Evacuation of young children from this particular area has proven difficult. By placing another academic classroom there you are increasing this hazard.

5. Why have a Math Lab? This is an economy measure, as the same Math materials are used by all the classes during the year and this avoids purchasing duplicate material.

6. What happened to the 2 original kindergarten rooms on the lower level? These do not meet the standards of academic class-

It is obvious that Center School cannot be used as a long-term solution to the overcrowding at Old Hammondtown School.

You wouldn't borrow money from a friend, but you'd borrow from a bank. Does that mean we aren't your friend?

It's a funny position to be in. People tell you never to borrow from a friend—and we agree. Then you come to a bank to borrow money—as you should. A friend or not a friend? That's quite a question. Well, at Plymouth-Home we see the answer as both "yes" and "no".

We're very happy to be your friend—in a business sort of way. Because we feel you want us to treat your money matters in a professional and business-like manner.

Borrowing or lending money requires mutual trust and respect. It demands competent, confidential treatment of an intimate personal need. Sure, some of you in the communities we serve throughout Plymouth County know people at our bank as true friends, and that's good. They know you and you know them. That's a good start for any business dealing.

In any case, whether you're a long standing friend or a first time visitor, you receive the same trust and respect just because you're you. And that's pretty important. In a business sort of friendship you should expect and receive more than a handshake, you should profit from the experience and knowledge of how money can work for you. The loan is yours and you have to live with it so we'll help you plan everything from days to dollars so that it fits your budget.

You couldn't ask any more of your best friend.

Bank where it counts.

TEA AT ART CENTER

On Wednesday, March 15th, the Cecil Clark Davis Gallery of the Marion Art Center held a tea for all friends of the Gallery. Plans for the coming season were presented and volunteers working for the Gallery in various capacities were introduced.

Mrs. George Smith of Mattapoisett showed magnificent movies taken in Africa on a Camera Safari with the Florida Zoological Society. Golden, glowing late afternoon sunsets, billowy white clouds floating over vast plains, intimate reels of magestic elephants, giraffes and numerous other familiar and unfamiliar animals were shown as Mrs. Smith commented on her films.

On exhibit in the gallery are many fine paintings available for sale or rent. This exhibit will be on display until April 6th. from 1 to 5 P.M. Wednesday - Friday. The Gallery will present an exhibit of Cecil Clark Davis paintings April 6.

of the backboards and assume a 42-30 lead at the half. The Gazelles refused to fold and fought back in the second half, to reduce the lead to six points early in the 4th quarter. The loss of Shockro and Ray Carvalho on fouls in the last quarter, and effective ball control by the Merchants signaled doom for the Gazelles.

The Merchants were led by Mike Brito's 25 points, Steve Carey with 18 and Cliff Lopes with 16. Carey was selected as the tournament's most valuable player and awarded a trophy for his all around play. Individual trophies were presented to each member of the winning team. The first place trophy was accepted by winning coach Frank Mott.

The Gazelles were led by John Shockro with 25 points, Ray Carvalho with 18 and John Eddy and Ray Lammi with 12 apiece. Richie Sylvia played an outstanding game on defense and contributed 8 points.

Captain Vin's defeated the Bartenders 46-40 to finish third and win the consolation trophy. Doug Tuxworth and Mike O'Brien paced Vin's with 10 points apiece.

Interest in Hot Lunches?

By letter dated January 26, 1972 Mr. Jack Leff of the Executive Office of Elder Affairs of the Commonwealth notified the Board of Selectmen of Mattapoisett that he had "recently signed the Elderly Persons Lunch Program Agreement for the Town of Mattapoisett". This is also known as the "hot lunch" program. Under it hot lunches are served to elderly persons in the school cafeteria after the pupils and faculty, etc. have had lunch, presumably after one o'clock.

The Senior Citizens' Club of Mattapoisett wishes to get this program started in Mattapoisett. In order to do so it is necessary to know approximately how many elderly people are interested in getting these lunches and in what school building they wish to have the lunches. Although the Senior Citizens' Club is backing this program, any elderly resident of Mattapoisett who is sixty years or older is eligible. At present there are two school cafeterias which can be used: Old Hammondtown and Center Schools. In the Center School the seats are backless benches. In Old Hammondtown there are individual chairs.

Menus for the coming week are printed in the Standard-Times towards the end of the current week. The cost of the lunches would be fifty-five (55) cents and the school, or someone to be designated when the program goes into effect, would have to be notified the day before by anyone wishing to have the lunch.

It will take about ten days after Dr. Joseph Kunces, school superintendent, is notified to get the program started. Of course, lunches could be served only when the schools are in session, which would eliminate week-ends, holidays and the summer vacation.

If you are an elderly person will you please indicate your preference in regard to this lunch program in the appropriate squares below:

cut out the above and put it into an envelope or paste it on a postal card or just state your preference on a card and mail it to: Thomas Earle, Jr., Aucoot Road, Mattapoisett, Mass. 02739.

The replies will be tabulated as quickly as possible and the program started shortley thereafter if enough people are interested. This does not mean a great many people. In Marion, where lunches have been served for some time, the average number is about ten to fifteen persons.

Y.W.C.A. Events

Reservations, open to the public, for the International Luncheon, sponsored by the World Fellowship Committee, on Wednesday, March 29th, should be made by Monday, March 27th. Tickets are available at the New Bedford YWCA main desk. Manicotti, Greek Salad, Portuguese bread and English trifle will be served at 12 noon by Mrs. Clarence W. Whitaker, chairman, her committee members and other volunteers from the membership.

Attendance at this event is an opportunity to share in good fellowship at the "Y" and to hear Miss Jean Campbell, executive director of the New Bedford YWCA, narrate with the use of her own colored slides, her recent trip to Israel, and to help support a worthy fund that is used to benefit women and girls around the world.

Curtain time is 8:00 P.M. Friday and Saturday, March 24 and 25, at the New Bedford YWCA for J. G. Fuller's adaptation of "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court". This is the annual spring production of the YWCA Drama Club, Mad Actors Distinguished.

Tickets are available now at the New Bedford YWCA, from Drama Club members, and also will be available at the door. Director of the play is Miss Martha Self.

The lobby decorations have been changed for another month. Mrs. Doris Place has painted a scene, "The American Wilderness", in the north niche, showing mountains and a waterfall. On the other side of the fireplace Mrs. Hilda Cook has placed a colorful painting "Burst of Spring". The public is invited to visit the New Bedford YWCA and enjoy these new paintings that make the lobby attractive and seasonal.

Senior Ski Club will meet for business at 7:30 P.M. on Friday, March 24. Plans for spring and early summer activities will be discussed. These plans, including the bike and hike group, will give time to preparation and talks on bicycling and safety. Nearby walks and hikes will be held, and in June, hiking in New Hampshire will include a visit to Mt. Monadnock, in July to Mt. Chocura, and in August to Wildcat Mountain.

President Michael Picard invites people interested in mountain hikes, bike hikes and overnight camping trips to join the club. Although ski season is finished, there is still much to do in the area of outdoor activities.

The new spring program is in the mail for YWCA members, and is free to anyone interested, at the main desk.
